BOSTON, November 3.

Wednesday last the Great and General Court met here, when his Excellency the Governor was pleased to make the following SPEECH to both Houses, viz.

Gentlemen of the Council, and
Gentlemen of the House of Representatives,

I HAVE thought proper to call you together, that you may have an Opportunity to give a positive Answer to what I recommended to you, by Order of his Majesty, last Session; as it will be expected of me that it be reported to his Majesty before the opening of the Business of the next Year: And I heartily wish that it may be such as will answer the Expectations and Desires of your Friends in Great-Britain. For my own Part, I shall upon this Occasion, as upon all others, make the best Use of the Means you shall put in my Hands to promote the Honour and Reputation of the Province.

As you are called together for this Business only, when it is finished, I shall have no Objection to your returning Home, until the usual Time of opening the Winter Session.

Fra. Bernard.

NEW-YORK, October 23.

On Tuesday night between 10 and 12 o'clock, a number of soldiers with bayonets, went to several houses in the Fields, where they were very noisy and abusive, to the great disturbance and terror of the inhabitants. This was occasioned, it is said, by ill treatment, which some of the soldiers had received the night before, at some of those infamous houses, which to the great scandal of our wholesome laws, are suffered to exist as so many receptacles for loose and disorderly people.

Friday Night last Capt. Tilly arrived here from Tortola, in 22 Days; he says that on the 19th ult. they had such a violent Gale of Wind at that Island, that every vessel there was drove on shore, but that they were all got off again without receiving any considerable Damage.

The Boundary Line between the Provinces of New-York and Quebec (the Name now given to all Canada) is fixed at Latitude 45 Deg. which crosses Lake Champlain, about two and a half Miles North of Wind-Mill Point, and is distinguished by Openings made on each Side of the Lake, where several Trees are girded and square Post set up, mark'd with the Letters Y. and Q. pointing to the respective Governments. The Opening on the West Side of the Lake is at a low remarkable Point of Land, which was then, by the Gentlemen present, named Moore's Point, in Respect to his Excellency Sir Henry Moore our Governor. His Excellency, and General Carlton, Lieutenant Governor of Quebec, were each attended by several Gentlemen from their respective Governments.

While his Excellency was at Windmill Point, several Gentlemen from Quebec, took the Opportunity to wait on him, and acquaint him with their Claims, by Grants from the French King, of all the Lands in those Parts, on both Sides the Lake, as far South as Crown Point, or farther.---We are inform'd they very much insisted upon their Right, from these Grants, and that his Excellency was pleased to acquaint them that the Determination would be left to the King and Council. Should the Claims of these Incroachments be admitted, it is hardly to be doubted but they may produce Grants for all the Lands to the North of Fort Edward.

William Bowes,

HAS brought with him from London, in the Ship Thames, Alexander Watts, Commander a general Assortment of Hard Ware Goods, which he will sell cheap for Cash only, at his Store on Dock Square.

Translation from a Swedish Author.

ENGLAND without Dispute is the Queen of Isles, the Empire and Arsenal of Neptune. She is at the same Time the Peru of Europe, the Kingdom of Bacchus, the School of Epicurus, the Academy of Venus, the Country of Mars, the Abode of Minerva, the Support of Holland, the Scourge of France, the Purgatory of Partisans of Opposition, and the Paradise of those of Liberty. The Women are handsome, but their Beauty is attended with something very insipid. Bravery there, is, as it were, natural to the Men, but carried to an Excess that approaches to Savageness. Wit and Judgment reign there, and perhaps more than in any other Country whatever; but they produce a certain Air of Pride, which considerably diminishes their Merit. 'Tis there, one may say, that Fortune distributes her Favours abundantly; but these Islanders are ignorant of the Use they ought to to make of them to Strangers, as the Courtiers and their Taste are the only Objects of their Liberality. Their Language is an odd Mixture of almost all the Tongues of Europe; but with this Advantage, that it expresses itself the best of all of them: In short, 'tis a Nation, where nothing is wanting to its Happiness, but to know how to enjoy it. Her natural Restlessness, and extreme Jealousy for Liberty and Property, have often plunged her into Civil Wars, which have laid her within six Inches of her Destruction.

The three Journies I made there having let me into their Manners, I venture to assert that it is the most delightful Country in the World for young Gentlemen to be amused in, provided they are Masters of the Language, and able to support the Expence:----And if the high Road to Hell be sown with Delights and Pleasure, you must heedfully pass thro' England to it.

BOSTON, November 5.

We hear from Portsmouth, New-Hampshire, that on the 20th ult. was committed to Goal there, one Mrs. Elizabeth Odiorne, on Suspicion of the Murder of Mrs. Grant, Wife of Mr. Daniel Grant of that Place, and her Infant. It is said, that two young Children of these Women having quarrel'd, Mrs. Odiorne carried Mrs. Grant's to its Mother for Correction, Mrs. Grant who was sitting at an Ironing-board, replied she would as soon as she had done what she was about; but Mrs. Odiorne began to correct the Child herself, whereupon the Mother got up to rescue the Child out of the other's Hands, when Mrs. Odiorne pushing Mrs. Grant against a Desk in the Room, being with Child, set her into Travel, and she expired soon after with her Infant.

LONDON, Aug. 10.

Advice has been received that the government of Massachusetts Bay, the Jersey's & Connecticut, have agreed to make satisfaction for the loss of goods and other damages sustained by such persons who were sufferers by the precipitate rage of the populace during the late tumults on account of the stamp-act.

It is said the French Agents are now privately engaging Ship Carpenters to go over to Brest, Rochfort, &c. where Artificers are much wanted in the principal Dock Yards of that Kingdom.

The bad success of the Greenland fishery this year, advanced the price of Whalebone ten per cent. but a glut is soon expected from the American markets.

We hear orders will soon be issued for raising a regiment of highlanders for American service.

Aug. 29. The last Amsterdam Gazette, under the head London, August 15, says, "His Majesty very frequently confers in private with the Earl of Chatham, who, a prey to satires, bears but impatiently the effects of the extravagant prejudices which the people have imbibed on his elevation. There is actually forming against him a powerful party to counteract his design in the Cabinet and in Parliament. Such is the mode of thinking, the inconstancy of the nation, that he, whom to day it regards as its support, is to morrow considered as the opposer of its interests."

Sept. 1. We hear the Rt. Hon. the Earl of Bristol, is appointed Lord Lieutenant of Ireland; and the Right Hon. the Earl of Hartford master of the Horse to his Majesty.

We hear that Mr. Serjeant Hewit has declined accepting the offer of being a Judge in the court of King's Bench, in the room of Sir Eardly Wilmot.

Sept. 6. It is still undeniable, notwithstanding any thing that has been yet said to the contrary, that there is a most perfect understanding between the Lord Chatham and his Sovereign.

Divers Gentlemen have lately gone over to New-York; and other provinces in North America, to claim lands given their predecessors almost a century ago. On the estate of one gentleman, 'tis said Elizabeth Town is built, which will now turn out of great value to him. It is probable this may give the American Lawyers some business.

NEW-YORK, October 27.

To Major ROBERT ROGERS, Esq; Governor and Commander in Chief of Michilimackinack. and its Dependencies, &c. &c.

May it please your Honour,

WE, the Merchants, and Traders of MICHILIMACKINAC, beg Leave to congratulate you on your safe Arrival here, It gives us a particular Satisfaction, that you are appointed our Governor, more especially at a Time that many of the Indian Nations, almost worn out with repeated Solicitations for Traders, are on the Eve of Discontent; but our Hopes from you, Sir, to reconcile Matters, and put the Trade upon a proper Footing, are very sanguine. You have already distinguished yourself in a military, and have now a fair Opportunity of doing it in a civil Capacity. Your Activity, and the many eminent Services you rendered your Country in the Course of the last War, and the Reputation you have by that Means gained amongst the Indians, will add Weight to your Councils, and re-establish the national Credit, through the most extensive and remotest Part of his Majesty's Dominions.

Permit us to assure, you, Sir, that on our Parts, we shall at all Times do every Thing in our Power, to bring the Indians to a Sense of their Duty, and make your Residence as agreeable as the Place will admit of. And that we are, with the greatest Respect, Your Honour's

Michilimackinac, Most Obedient, and.
Aug. 12, 1766. Most Humble Servants.

[Signed by 20 of the principal Merchants and Traders at Michilimackinac.]

To the MERCHANTS & TRADERS at MICHILIMACKINAC.

GENTLEMEN,

THIS affectionate Address deserves my Gratitude. I cannot but be sensibly affected at the general Discontent among the Indians; but be assured, that I shall enforce every salutary Measure conducive to the Re-establishment of general Tranquility, consistent with the Instructions I have, and may, from Time to Time, receive from Sir William Johnson, under whom I act, from whose Judgment and extensive Knowledge in Indian Affairs, the Grievances you complain of, may speedily be removed.

Be assured, my Endeavours shall never be wanting, in promoting the Trade of this distant Post; and I shall be ready at all Times, to advise with you on Measures for its Advancement. I am,

Gentlemen,
Your Most Humble Servant,
ROBERT ROGERS.

Tuesday last passed by this city to the North-River, from New-London, his Majesty's ship Cygnet, Captain Durell; and we hear she is bound to Virginia, in a few days.

HARTFORD, October 27.

The Hon. Eliphalet Dyer, we hear is appointed by our General Assembly, an Agent from this Colony, to the Court of Great-Britain.

On Sunday Evening the 19th, the Dwelling-house of Mr. Simeon Willard of Shefield, was struck with Lightning, and Mr. Willard was instantly killed.---He was about 54 Years of Age.

BOSTON, NOVEMBER 3.

By one of the last Vessels from London, we have receiv'd Copies of Addresses presented to the Marquis of ROCKINGHAM, from Liverpool, Leeds, Sheffield, Hull, Halifax, Wakefield, York and Manchester, with his Lordship's Answers, which will have a Place in our next.

We hear a Vessel is arrived at Plymouth from St. Eustatia, and brings Advice that a severe Gale of Wind happened the 7th of last Month, in which they with others, were drove out to Sea: Its said the Wind blew more violent than in the Hurricane which happened at Martinico the 13th of August; but we don't hear of any particular Loss sustained thereby. 'Tis also said a smart Shock of an Earthquake was felt at St. Kitts the same Day, but that no Damage was done by it.

A Gentleman in London writes to his Correspondent here, August 30, that the Market is at present overstocked with American Pot-Ash.---that the best now sells at 28 to 29 l. per Ton, and but few Buyers,---that the Price must be considerable lower, unless the different Provinces stop the Exportation for a few Months, which will not be easily done till they are sensible of their Error.

We hear that a Brigantine,----Douglass, Master, from the West-Indies, bound to New-Haven, was cast away a few Days ago between Fisher's Island Reef and Watch-Hill near New-London, the Vessel beat to Pieces and the Cargo lost.

Thursday the 9th ult. the Wife of the Rev'd Mr. Benjamin Butler of Nottingham, was safely Delivered of three living and perfect Children two Daughters and a Son which were all Baptized the following Sabbath.

We hear that Mr. Paine who keeps the North-Mills having had Suspicion of his Corn and Meal being stole from Time to Time, resolved one Night last Week to watch for the Thief, early on the Morning a Rat above 5 Feet in height came in and took a two-bushel Bag with Corn on his Shoulders, and was carrying it off, when Mr. Paine discovered himself and rescued the Bag from him without any great Struggling,----Inserting the above may prevent such mischievous Vermine attempting to enter the Mills or any other Places.

TO-MORROW,

At Ten o'Clock in the Morning,

WILL BE SOLD by Public VENDUE, at the Auction Room in Queen-Street, at 10 o'Clock, A. M. An Assortment of valuable Silks.—Any Person may see them at any Time before the Sale by Enquiring at said Room —— At the same Time will be Sold (if not dispos'd of before at private Sale) A Quantity of Corn Sacks; they will be put up Forty in a Lot. ALSO, A Quantity of Hosiery, per dozen, Broad Cloths, Ratteens, Bearskins, Half thicks, Duffils, 6 qr 9 qr and 10 qr. Blankets, Coverlids, Rugs, Shalloons, Irish Linnens, Manchester Checks, Beaver and Felt Hatts, &c. Also Two Hogsheads of DELPH WARE. J. Russell, Auctioneer.

☞ Sale to be continued at Three 'Clock Afternoon.

TO THE PRINTERS.

IT may be matter of ſpeculation to ſome perſons that New-York has got over the affair of reimburſing the ſufferers in the late times, with ſo little difficulty, while other governments find themſelves much embarras'd therein--But be it remember'd that N. York very opportunely got rid of a G--r the moſt obnoxious and deteſted of any of his predeceſſors, and who, it is probable, would have ſtrain'd every nerve to have countenanced the ſchemes of the wrong-headed Mr. G------le, and embarraſs the late or preſent Miniſtry----And that he is to the great joy of the people, ſucceeded by one, who has not taken all methods to irritate and inflame, by negativing and removing thoſe gentlemen, who, upon principle, oppoſed the Stamp-Act, and were the idols of the people, and appointing thoſe to office, who were favourers thereof, and on other accounts odious and deſpis'd----Who has not intermeddled with the free elections of the people, by pointing out the perſons the repreſentatives ſhould chuſe, or threatning to vacate other elections---Who, not content with his own department, had inſerted himſelf in every other, and was continually making precedents and regulations, not only diſagreeable for their novelty, but as they were exceſſively vexatious and expenſive to the ſubject---Who had not been conſtantly inſinuating to the adminiſtration, that his province was rich, and could pay ſuch duties and taxes as would make a handſome revenue, out of which a ſtanding army might be ſupported---New appointments made, and himſelf and creatures in office have increaſed ſalaries, intirely independent of the people who muſt ſupport them---A G^r that has not turned cuſtom-houſe officer, and cockled the ſimple merchant out of his intereſt, to the prejudice of the King's revenue, at the ſame time repreſenting to the miniſtry his deſire to cruſh a trade upon which he placed his great dependance to inrich himſelf---A G^r who has not aggravated every triffing diſorder almoſt to rebellion, and thereby inforced the neceſſity of regulars, for carrying his own ſelfiſh ſchemes into execution, though to the alienating the affections of Britain and her Colonies---And, in fine, not one, who, inſtead of ſeconding the patriotic and benevolent deſigns of the miniſtry, in recomending generoſity to be ſhewn the late ſufferers, has either miſtook, or wilfully broke in upon their plan, and ſet that affair in ſuch an unjuſt, as well as unpopular light, as almoſt to put it out of the power of the more humane and diſcerning, to diſcover their humanity and diſcernment, without acting in direct oppoſition to the minds of their conſtituents, and, as it were, ſigning an order for their own diſmiſſion from public truſt.*

Meſſ^rs EDES and GILL,

I Obſerve the following paragraph in a late ſpeech, "For my part, I ſhall upon this occaſion, as upon all others, make the beſt uſe of the means you ſhall put into my hands to promote the honour and welfare of the province." Good ----! to what a degree are we inſulted to our very faces? what attempts are made upon our underſtanding.? Is the diſmiſſing ſix gentlemen from the council board (becauſe they would not be tools and creatures) promoting the honour of the province? Is the repreſenting the province in a ſtate of rebellion, oppugnation, fighting againſt the King's authority, and that nothing but a ſtanding army will do? I ſay, is this promoting the honour and welfare of the province?*

Wanted immediately, a live BUCK and a DOE, for which a good Price will be given; Enquire of

On a late EVENT.

Shall Pitt, to sacred Freedom late so dear,
Like shifting Pultney sink into a Peer!
Shall he, in spite, the Great, the Good, the Wise,
Quit his firm hold, and learn to temporize?

INFAMOUSLY false is the assertion, that all ranks of People consider a Great Man's acceptance of the Peerage as a defection from principle, or a political apostacy; and still more impudently untrue is that of his being exclaimed against with a bitterness of language, and warmth of Indignation, far exceeding whatever was uttered or shewn against the late Earl of Bath, on his acceptance of that title.

Absurd likewise is the representation, that the Earl of Chatham (Pitt) has been jockeyed out of his popularity and importance; for they never did, nor ever can depend on any thing but his own manifested abilities and integrity. In whatever station or assembly he appears, his words & actions must and will be made the grounds of public opinion concerning him; Therefore while he does himself and supports in others what is right, he will deservedly continue in full possession of his popularity, which can never be determined by the artifices of any men; for on his own manifested conduct, and on that alone, his weight, importance, and character, will always depend.

When merit has passed through such fiery trials, and every time came out with acknowledged greater purity, its character for protection becomes naturally so well established, nothing less than a proved demonstrated transmutation of qualities, from precious to base, can effectually alter the opinions of mankind concerning it: and these the public must have, before they will suffer their high estimation of the merits of Lord Chatham (Pitt) to be in the least degree lowered.

The emoluments of his office, which is far from being the first in profit, (while little doubt can be entertained, that even the first might have been obtained by him) and the title he has been honoured with (though they made no addition to the peerage, and are in some degree necessary for supporting the dignity of the employment, so high in rank, with which he is become invested) are as groundless as invidiously attributed to a spirit of selfishness, with which they say he is become inspired. But why should Mr. Pitt only be expected to act upon such romantick principles, as to sacrifice all private to public affection? Should a man's regard for his country be expected to extinguish that which is due from him to his family? or must he turn an insensible private monster, in order to qualify him for becoming a patriot? Who will doubt that Mr. Pitt could have obtained all the posts (with the power and emoluments which they would give to himself, and all the means which they furnished of gratification to others) that were possessed by Sir Robert Walpole and Mr. Pelham? and surely then his choice of a post which is greatly less lucrative than that which he possessed before, and was wished to accept again, and to which there are perhaps annexed the fewest means of gratifying others, of any belonging to the entire class of the Ministers, with the example of his whole life, for making no unfair advantages; I say, with all these apparent circumstances of uncommon self-denial in his favour, can such an imputation be allowed to have the least weight with men of worth?

No, his ruling object is evidently the service of his country as firm as his infirm state of health will admit; and it being become out of power to serve it greatly otherwise than by his councils, he has wisely declined offices of toil and suitable emoluments, which are manifest proofs of his prudence and moderation, for which the discerning part of the public will honour and applaud him; and as for the malevolence of faction, prejudice and envy, it is beneath his regard.

A CANDID MAN.

HALIFAX, October 2.

On Saturday last arrived in this Harbour the Hopewell, Capt. M'Gowarn, with upwards of 100 People from Ireland, who are come to be Settlers in this Province.

We are informed that Lieutenant-Colonel Dalrymple, at the Request of his Honor the Lieutenant Governor of this Province, has ordered a Detachment of 50 Men, from the two Regiments in Garrison here, to proceed Tomorrow to work on the Road from the Blockhouse to Fort Sackville.

Yesterday the Company of the Royal Regiment of Artillery, lately ordered Home, (who have been stationed here since the Year 1759) embarked on board the Transport for Quebec, where they are to leave the Company designed for that Place, and from thence proceed for England.

Octob. 9. On Friday last arrived in this Harbour, His Majesty's Ship the Mermaid, Captain Dean, who will remain here the Winter, and, we are told, the Launceston will in a few Days sail for Virginia, to relieve the Squirrel on that Station.

On Sunday Night last, the Century on his Post near the Victualling Office, was knock'd down and had his Skull fractured in such a Manner, that it is doubted whether he can recover. It is not certainly known who was the Person guilty of this cruel Action.

On Sunday last the Transport, with the two Companies of the Royal Regiment of Artillery sailed for Quebec.
